Workforce/Recruitment Monitoring

CONFIDENTIAL

As an equal opportunities employer we are committed to ensuring that you and other job applicants are not discriminated against on any grounds, or disadvantaged by job conditions or requirements which are not relevant.

To maintain this commitment, and to assist us in monitoring the composition of our workforce and the response to our advertisements, we need to collect information about the people who apply for our jobs. The information you provide will be treated as confidential and only be used to monitor our employment practices and policies; it will not influence the outcome of your application.

If you consider that your application for a job with Avon Fire & Rescue has not been treated fairly you should write to Human Resources with details of your concerns. Please ensure that you do this within three months of hearing the result of your application.

By completing this form we will assume you have given consent to it being processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act.
